

Running a Raffle

Raffles conducted to benefit United Way of Portage County must be pre-approved as these raffles are sponsored by United Way of Portage County, exclusive holder of the raffle license(s) through the State of Wisconsin.

IMPORTANT: Raffles are highly regulated by the State of Wisconsin, so please read this document to familiarize yourself with all raffle regulations and guidelines as set forth by the Wisconsin Division of Gaming- Office of Charitable Gaming. Wisconsin law provides that only charitable organizations can obtain a raffle license in Wisconsin. Individuals and businesses do not qualify for a raffle license.

Once your raffle has been approved you will be sent the current year, United Way of Portage County raffle license number.

What is a Raffle? A raffle is a game of chance in which tickets are sold and a drawing for a prize(s) is held. A drawing for raffle prizes is a random selection of an organization's raffle ticket portion from a container housing all raffle tickets purchased for the raffle.

A Raffle is NOT a sweepstakes or lottery involving random numbers to determine a winner. Purchasing a raffle ticket(s) does not guarantee a return and the cost of a raffle ticket(s) is NOT tax deductible.

There are 3 types of Legal Wisconsin Raffles

Advanced Ticket Sale Raffle (also known as "Class A" Raffles)

There are two ways to conduct a legal Advanced Ticket Raffle.

The first is to raffle a prize or multiple prizes by putting all prizes on one raffle ticket. For example, if you have four prizes to raffle (a pair of basketball tickets, a television, dinner out, and a gas card) they are all listed on one ticket. Ticket buyers purchase a raffle ticket(s) with the hope of winning one of those prizes. Winning ticket holders do not get to choose their prize.

The second way is to run multiple raffles simultaneously. In this case, you must create and sell a unique raffle ticket for each of the prizes. Conducting a raffle in this manner would require you to create a raffle ticket for each prize: a pair of basketball tickets, a television, dinner out, and a gas card. This enables the ticket purchaser to buy a ticket(s) for prizes they are interested in winning. Each different raffle prize constitutes a unique raffle. Total number of tickets sold and Gross monies raised must be tracked separately for each of these prize raffles.

Same Day Ticket Sale Raffle (also known as "Class B" Raffles)

Same Day Ticket Sales Raffles involve selling raffle tickets only on the same day you do the prize drawing. If you have multiple prizes, buyers who purchase a Same Day Raffle Ticket can choose which prize they wish to win by putting their ticket stub in an identified container.

Calendar Raffle

A Calendar Raffle is a raffle for which a drawing is held and a prize awarded on each date specified on a calendar. Contact United Way for complete details about Calendar Raffles.
