The United Way vision of these focus areas include: Education - to prepare children for success in school and life; Income - to advance the opportunities for people to maintain independent living and moving people toward financial stability; Health - to improve the mental and physical health of people in Portage County; and Community Basics - to ensure that people's basic needs of food, shelter, safety and community connections are met. In order to fulfill these visions, United Way of Portage County provides financial support to 33 local nonprofit organization programs and initiatives, including its own Learn for Life Reading Program. A collaboration between United Way and Portage County schools, the program is designed to help increase reading achievement in the community.
